VILLA FAIRWAY

Vale do lobo

In a breathtaking location overlooking the 12th fairway of the renowned Royal Golf course, this linked villa is set amongst beautifully landscaped gardens, dotted with pretty lakes that invite you to a relaxing stroll after dinner.

Luxuriously furnished and decorated, the villa has a dramatic interior; set over several open-plan levels with open tread, wooden stairs between levels and walls of glass, there's wonderful light and space and delightful views through the main living areas, and private terraces to two of the bedrooms.

Before accessing the main entry is a patio with a small table and chairs, ideal for a morning coffee. On the main level is the spacious and comfortable living space with a dining area conveniently close and just one flight down from the kitchen, clearly visible on the upper half level and separated by a glass wall. The living area has a large, flat screen TV and wifi internet connection; through glazed sliding doors there's access to a spacious shaded dining area with a barbecue on the sun terrace beside the pretty plunge pool. Two double bedrooms each have an en-suite shower room. The master suite has a king-size bed, doors to the terrace and en-suite bathroom. In the basement, there's a popular relaxing and entertaining room with pool table, TV and music system.
