SOMMELIER'S SELECTION OF PREMIUM WINES

A handful of fine wines has been carefully picked by our sommelier for you to enjoy.

WHITE WINES

1. POUILLY FUISSE 'TETE DE CRU' €47.50

Chateau Fuisse, Burgundy, France

Light pale yellow colour with hints of green, nice and clear. Crisp and ripe nose, citrus, apples and lemon, almonds and smoked hazelnuts. Hints of mineral and good freshness. In the mouth it is fresh and forward, nice richness to the mid-palate, very classic in its definition. Lots of ripe fruits, almonds, some delicate oak, and a light smokiness. A complete wine with nice mineral and roundness. Good intensity, fresh with a nice volume.

2. GAVI DEI GAVI® ETICHETTA NERA DOCG €52.50

La Scolca, Piemonte, Italy

Prestigious Gavi dei Gavi® - La Scolca is obtained with the utmost respect for nature, from pruning to harvesting. With a strict and rigorous selection conducted with the utmost care, cluster by cluster, in vineyards over sixty years of age, we get "unique" grapes. The maximum procurable in quality as manifested by fragrance and flavour of live, intense character, harmonious and balanced, offers a surprising freshness and integrity. Notes of flint, almond and hazelnut will develop in the course of time, which does wonders.

RED WINES

3. MONTES PURPLE ANGEL CARMENERE

PETIT VERDOT 2013 €77.50

Marchigue, Colchagua Valley, Chile

Intense carmine red in colour with tremendous aromatic potency and a predominance of ripe red and black fruit, dairy notes, and a certain contribution of sweet spices, biscuits, and pastries. 18 months in oak barrels contributed aromas of vanilla, dark chocolate, nutmeg, and toast that harmonize very well with the ripe fruit. The palate has good structure, is correctly balanced, and has very well-rounded tannins in perfect harmony with the acidity from the 8% Petit Verdot in the final blend. It is creamy and lush with a long and persistent finish. Flavourful and very much in synch with its aromatic side.

4. MONTES FOLLY SYRAH 2012 €83.50

Santa Cruz, Colchagua Valley, Chile

Montes Folly is a deep purplish ruby red in colour. Aromatically it is very complex and potent without losing elegance. Ripe red and blue berries predominate on the nose with a seductive pastry note. 18 months in new French oak barrels lend interesting notes of coffee, chocolate, and very well-integrated toast that allows the fruit to be perceived in a colossal way. The palate reaffirms the aromatic sensations with light notes of dairy and nutmeg. Well balanced with very round tannins, tremendous structure, and a very long finish. Montes Folly has consistently been recognized as one of Chile's finest Syrahs.

5. CHATEAU BEYCHEVELLE 2011 €112.50

Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France

Fourth Growth. Quatrieme Grand Cru Classe in 1855. Indicative blend: 50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 40% Merlot with Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. Chateau Beychevelle is a traditionally made and traditionally styled Bordeaux wine full of cassis, earth, spice and tobacco notes that age's well. Nice concentration and density here compared to other St Julien reds. Good to see that the winemaking team was able to balance the dense tannins with the fresh flavour profile. Flavours range from cassis, blackberries to fresh Chinese red dates.

6. CHATEAU LEOVILLE POYFERRE 2011 €138.00

Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France

Second Growth. Deuxieme Grand Cru Classe in 1855. Indicative blend: Cabernet Sauvignon 60-70% and Merlot 20-30% with Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc. The style of Leoville Poyferre is a Bordeaux wine that offers lush ripe fruit with purity and concentration a powerful, plush style. Scents of cassis, spice and black fruits, with truffle and tobacco aromatics are the hallmarks of this wine. Leoville Poyferre has been one of the most consistent producers of high quality Bordeaux since 2000. This Leoville Poyferre is on fire. Producing a wine this good in 2011 is really saying something. The complex nose of truffle, smoke, black cherry and earth lets you know the wine is good. If that did not seal the deal, the fresh, sweet, soft fruits and peppery finish is going to do the trick.
