

We offer an excellent choice of Italian red wines from different regions. We would like to recommend the super Tuscans, chiantis and brunels from Tuscany, as well as exquisite wines from Piamonte and Veneto.

We offer you the 4th best red bordeaux wine from the year 1885, according to the classification. We can also offer you Petrus, the best burgundies and some excellent wines from the valley of Rona.

We have selected a few excellent Italian white wines from famous areas: Langhe, Friuli, Alto Adige, Sicily, Umbria and Piedmont.

We have some of the best wines from different vineyards of Burgundy, Loire and Alsace, as well as desert wines from Sauternais.

Wine with an exquisite bouquet and a forest fruit aroma, made from an autochthonous variety of grapes grown on the terrace of Bukovik village, at a height of 220 to 700 m.

Wine with a very full body, reminiscent of tobacco and ripe sour cherries, named after a famous vine grown by a well-known Montenegrin family.

An exquisite wine with a raspberry, blackcurrant and boiled fruit aroma. Made from a sort with the same name, parented by cabernet sauvignon and grenache noir, in the vineyards as high as 700 m above sea level.

Wine with a fruit character of a ripe sour cherry and forest fruits, from Ulcinj. It has preserved all the best qualities of “Vranac” sort, grown bathed in the sun (more than 2550 hours of sunlight) on the Mediterranean soil.

Wine with a characteristic smell of black berries, such as blackberry and blackcurrant. It is the result of a new vinification technology that increases the concentration of medicinal ingredients – hence the name “for the heart”.

Wine with a rich perfected bouquet and a taste of vanilla and prunes, part of the new (and limited) series made for the “Centennial of the establishment of the Kingdom of Montenegro”.

A light wine with an aroma of ripe fruit, partly berries, as well as tobacco, chocolate, pepper and black tea. It comes from the Krgović winery, from the surroundings of Podgorica.

A very fine and balanced wine, with a mild tone of vanilla, chocolate and forest fruits, from the Burić winery of Danilovgrad.

An intense ruby colored wine with a sour cherry and blackberry aroma. Comes from a family owned winery Vučinić-Zenta in the surrounding of Podgorica.

Naturally sweet wine, rounded off with a tone of vanilla and an aroma of coffee and chocolate. Late harvest of carefully picked grapes increases the concentration of sugar in the wine.

A very light wine with a raspberry and rose aroma. Plato Rose is unique due to the fact that the first Rose in Montenegro was made from pure Vranac, in order to promote this autochthonous sort.

A very pleasant and quaffable wine with a cherry and blackcurrant aroma, made from sangiovese and cabernet sauvignon sorts. It has an irresistible salmon color. Quite a refreshment on the wine scene of Montenegro.

A balanced wine with the smell of red fruit. At the entrance to the Boka Kotorska bay, next to the Savina monastery, grapes have been grown for centuries. This wine originates from that very spot, from the neighborhood.

Wine with a citrus aroma, rounded off with ripe spicy tones from the sunny hillsides of Boka Kotorska bay.

A recognizable wine with a pineapple, green apple and vanilla aroma, very quaffable wine. The fact that it is barricked gives it a stronger taste and smell.

Wine with a color as yellow as hay and an aroma of apples and mango, from the Krgović winery. It is an exceptional mineral wine and combines well with fish and sea-food.

Wine with a light aroma of vanilla and acacia, from the Burić winery.

Wine with a very balanced taste and smell, with a citrus and apple aroma, part of the jubilee series dedicated to the “Centennial of the establishment of the Kingdom of Montenegro”.
