Bagatelle Kalahari Game Ranch is located on the fringe of the Southern Kalahari, surrounded by a mix of tree and scrub savannah. The reserve itself is crisscrossed by rolling, vegetated dunes, typical of the Kalahari.

Bagatelle Kalahari Game Ranch inspires a sense of the traditional safari and the pioneering spirit of Africa all rolled into one unique experience.

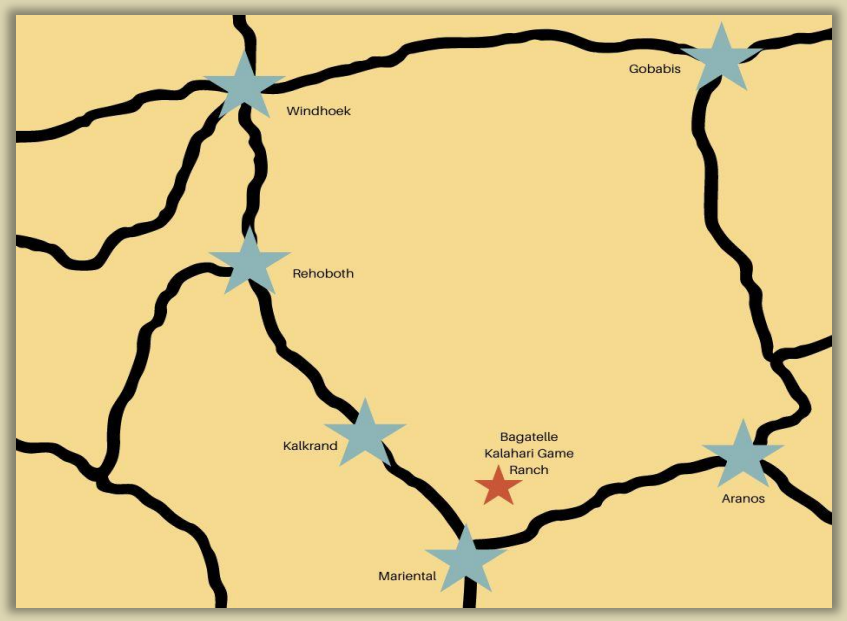

The Bagatelle Kalahari Game Ranch's nerve center is an old rambling farmhouse, renovated as a reception area, comfortable lounge, dining room, bar, wine cellar, office, wellness centre and well-stocked library.

When not relaxing in or around the pool or watching the waterhole with a drink at your side, try a morning nature walk, a nature drive to explore the amazing red dunes, a sundowner atop a dune, viewing the resident cheetahs, or even a horse-back safari.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS

Bagatelle Kalahari Game Ranch is situated approximately 50km from Mariental amid the red rolling dunes of the Kalahari Desert.

From Windhoek and the North:
Take the B1 main tarred road southwards, past Rehoboth and Kalkrand. Approximately 12km before you reach Mariental, turn left at the large intersection onto the C20 road which then takes you eastwards - this is a very good, tarred road.

After about 12km, take the first left turn onto the D1268 gravel road. Continue northwards for roughly 25km until you reach the sign indicating Bagatelle Kalahari Game on the right-hand side of the road. The Ranch is another 3-4 km into the dunes, where a warm welcome awaits you.

From Keetmanshoop and the south:
Take the B1 main tarred road northward, past Mariental. About 12km further, turn right at the large intersection with the new C20 tarred road which then takes you eastwards. Then follow the directions in the section paragraph of "from Windhoek" above.
