01-07-2017 - 03-07-2017	Namibrand / Wolwedans Dunes Lodge	FB & ACT

On arrival at the Windhoek International Airport you will be met by your private pilot/guide and taken to your aircraft. Fly over the Khomas Hochland to your lodge in the heart of the Namib Rand Nature Reserve.

Your pilot guide has formal education in conservation, and has been actively involved and working in this field for numerous years. During this safari he will show you the hidden treasures and introduce you to Namibia from a conservation side, sharing his intimate knowledge about the areas you will travel through and help you to build memories to last a lifetime.

You will have the next day at leisure to explore this beautiful area with your knowledgeable guide who will show you the little surprises in the desert like the white lady / trapdoor spider, or the mysterious fairy circles....

2 x Overnight in Luxury tented chalets

www.wolwedans.com

The Wolwedans Dunes Lodge is set in this magnificent NamibRand reserve and it is perched on top of a dune plateau, constructed on wooden platforms with a 360deg view of the Namib Desert. The combination of these structures, with large canvas blinds and windows that open up to the surrounding desert, reflects the ambiance of a tented camp, but provides the comfort and protection of a permanent building.

The main complex consists of two lounges, a number of sundowner decks, a swimming pool, a fireplace, tea deck, a library, wine cellar and two dining rooms. All communal areas of the lodge open out onto verandahs with magnificent desert vistas. Guests have to book in at a reception point, where they will be transported to the lodge.

Accommodation is in 1 of 9 spacious chalets. Each has it's own en-suite bathroom, that leads onto a private veranda with views of vast stretches of untouched sand. It has been noted by many of their guests that 'sleeping with your canvas blinds open, is as good as sleeping under the stars.'

Activities are many and can be enjoyed on foot, by car, or from the air. The Lodge's experienced guides will introduce their guests to the desert's habitat and diverse fauna and flora, and will accompany them into the desert, enlightening them of the wilderness's own history and residents.

Morning or afternoon drives cover a distance of about 40-50 km and take 3-four hours. Afternoon scenic drives are often combined with sunset in the dunes.

A day drive is a truly memorable excursion. Covering a distance of about 120 km it offers the highest degree of diversity as well as a better understanding of the dimensions of the NamibRand Conservancy. Also a delicious picnic lunch is served in the middle of nowhere! The day drive leaves after breakfast and returns approximately an hour before sunset.

Early morning rise in time for a short flight to an airstrip right at the Sesriem gates. A vehicle will be waiting at the Airstrip for you which will take you on a private visit to the dunes of Sossusvlei. You have the chance to climb a dune while your guide will set up a picnic breakfast in the shade of an acacia tree. After a leisurely breakfast you will have the chance to visit Deadvlei or climb another dune at Dune 45 before you return to your aircraft.

Fly over the endless stretches of the Namib Desert and its dunes to Sossusvlei where just this morning you were able to climb a dune. Fly past 3 abandoned Diamond camps, where the diamond hunters were working their way through tons and tons of desert sand to sieve out the tiniest of diamonds. After you reached the coastline you will see one of Namibia's most famous shipwrecks, the Eduard Bohlen, which lies well preserved high up on the beach. Continue North along the shoreline, past several seal colonies and the bird breeding sites at Sandwich Harbor, to the Walvis Bay Saltworks before your pilot turns to land in Swakopmund for a refuel stop.

The next flight will take you ever North along the Skeleton Coast to the Cape Fur Seal colony at Cape Cross before turning inland past the Brandberg to land at Twyfelfontein.

On arrival at the Airstrip you will be transferred to the Lodge.

Over the next 2 days you will visit the Twyfelfontein Bushmen engravings, Organ Pipes and the Petrified Forest. You will also explore the dry riverbed of the Aba Huab in search for the elusive Desert Elephants.

2 x Overnights in Superior View Rooms

Between the Ugab and Huab Rivers in Southern Damaraland lies a vast and unspoilt wilderness. This area boasts magnificent desert scenery, fascinating geological formations, archaeological sites and a unique variety of desert fauna and flora.

It's also the Southernmost roaming ground for the rare black rhino and desert elephant. This is where you will find the Twyfelfontein Conservancy and the Mowani Mountain Camp. Mowani is taken from the word M'Wane, meaning "Place of God", and it is here, that you will find the true meaning of peace and tranquillity.

The luxury tented accommodation is built unobtrusively, so as to ensure minimum impact on the natural environment. The stilt-like supports of the tents ensure that very little excavation was needed in order to create this special oasis. Much care has been taken with the design of the public areas, creating the impression of an African Village, with dome-like thatched structures that blend in with the imposing boulders which are scattered around the outcrops.

There are plenty of ways to relax at Mowani Mountain Camp.

Discover the pool deck, lodged between the boulders where you can soak up the sun whilst enjoying a refreshing drink and admiring breathtaking views. Adventures and activities available at Mowani include guided nature drives in search of the elusive desert elephant and hiking through magnificent scenery.

Staying at Mowani Mountain Camp, a traveller can easily join in an excursion to explore the historical site of Twyfelfontein. Twyfelfontein is a rare example of Bushmen engravings and paintings occurring at the same site. This wonderful archeological site offers more than 2,500 engravings as well as various paintings, and is probably the finest example of rock engravings in Southern Africa.

2 x Overnights in Luxury Tented Accommodation

www.mushara-collection.com

Situated in the same reserve as the Mushara Lodge and Villa Mushara, is Mushara Outpost. It is set 2km from Mushara Lodge, has its own entrance way and is completely separate from both the lodge and Villa. This small, intimate lodge, has 8 guest units that were built up on raised platforms to provide a unique perspective of the surrounding bush.

The Outpost's main area is a vast open room. It has been constructed in the style of an old Namibian farmhouse, with high ceilings and a corrugated iron roof and large wrap-around veranda. Inside though, stylish furniture, large plant pots and grand light fittings have been set out to create various sitting areas, together with a lounge and dining area.

Accommodation is nestled amongst the trees of a dry river bed, also known as an omuramba. It has been designed and constructed with a unique combination of canvas, wood and glass. Each room has large glass windows and the doors slide open onto a private deck, enabling you to view the surrounding bush. The en-suite bathroom includes a shower with glass walls from floor to ceiling. A room with a view, bringing the outdoors inside!

Every tented room has a mini bar, air conditioning, small safe, coffee station, telephone, hair dryer and mosquito net. There is also a fairly spacious veranda with sitting space in which to relax.

Dinner is enjoyed under the African stars. Breakfast and lunch can be taken on the veranda or in the house. The wide refreshing pool is a welcome relief after a hot day in the Etosha Park where the focus of the day's activities take place. Guests often comment on how The Outpost is such a comfortable place to stay after driving around Etosha all day!

The Mushara Outpost offers game drives into the park with talented local guides who are truly passionate about sharing the wonders of Etosha. There is also a small waterhole with a bird-watching hide.

Etosha owes its unique landscape to the Etosha Pan, a vast shallow depression of approximately 5 000 square km. A series of waterholes along the Southern edge of the pan guarantee the rewarding and often spectacular game viewing. In good rain years the pan fills with water draining southwards from Angola via the delta like system of shallow rivers and oshanas, drying out in the winter to become an austere expanse of white cracked mud, shimmering with mirages and upward spiraling dust devils.

Of the mammal species found in the park, several are rare and endangered, such as black rhino and black-faced impala. Etosha's elephants are reputed to be the largest in Africa, the tallest ones measuring up to 4m at the shoulder. Their tusks, on the other hand, are relatively small. For the greater part of the year the Etosha Pan is a bleak expanse of white cracked mud which shimmers with mirages on most days. Seeing vast herds of game against this eerie backdrop makes the Etosha game-viewing experience unique.
