ACCOMMODATION

Each of the 16 chalets at Ugab Terrace Lodge are of the same standard, with 8 chalets facing east, to welcome the morning sunrise, and the other 8 facing west, allowing guests to sit on their balcony and enjoy a private sundowner.

The chalets have been expertly designed to make the most of the stunning Damaraland scenery.

Each African-inspired chalet boasts 2 x 3/4 beds and additional camping cots can be added for children.

The lodge is 100% off the grid, and completely solar powered, however this does not mean that creature comforts have been neglected, and each chalet has fans, air conditioning and wi-fi.

As you embark on your journey to Ugab Terrace Lodge, you'll be greeted by a sign that perfectly captures the spirit of your adventure: 'Difficult roads often lead to beautiful places.' The thrilling steepness, calls for a sturdy 4x4, adding an element of excitement to your voyage. But don't worry if you're uncertain about your off-roading skills—there's a secure 2x4 parking area for buses and sedans.

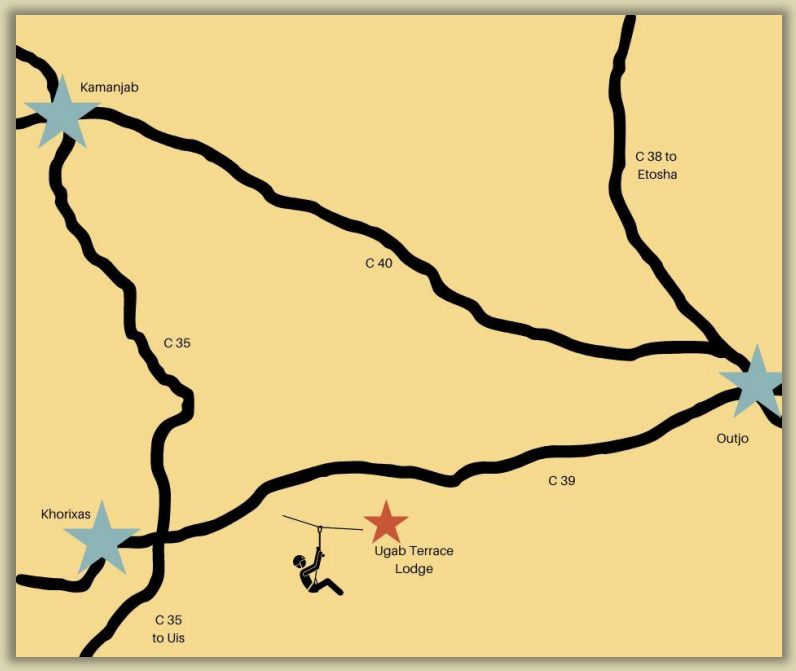

Nestled within a dramatic landscape sculpted over millions of years by the relentless forces of wind and water, Ugab Terrace Lodge offers a breathtaking spectacle of nature's artistry. Striking rock formations rise majestically from the earth, telling a story eons in the making. The open-plan thatched main area, perched gracefully on the edge of a terrace, welcomes you with a wraparound veranda that offers unparalleled views of the enchanting Vingerklip.

The lodge's swimming pool is a marvel, seamlessly blending with the unique rock formations and following the natural flow of the granite outcrops.
